About the Campsite:

Kiwanis lodge is located in Huia Regional Park, next to Huia Bay and the Waitakere Ranges. It also has a great view of Manukau Harbour.

Expect to spot kereru (wood pigeon) and tui in the surrounding bush as well as glow worms and wetas at night-time. What a wonderful place to relax and enjoy the creation of God!

It is an approximately 50 minute drive from Papatoetoe.

The lodge sleeps 46 people with cabins containing bunk-style beds and has a mill-managers house that was built in the 1890s.

What you will need to bring:

- Bedding – pillow, blanket/sleeping bag
- Clothes you don't mind getting dirty
- Swimming gear
- Sun hat
- Towel
- Good walking shoes
- General toiletries
- Sunscreen
- Bible
- Torch
- A packet of biscuits or baking to share
- A great attitude and willingness to take part
